

LIBERTY HALL (LOWER LEVEL)

At 14,400 sq. ft., Liberty Hall is the largest of the rental spaces at the Factory and includes two stages, a 2000 sq. ft. 2nd floor mezzanine, a Green Room, and catering kitchen. Liberty Hall has played host to numerous concerts and television tapings, featuring John Mayer, Keith Urban, Jimmy Buffett, Michael McDonald, Maroon 5, and many more. Accommodating corporate events for Verizon, Healthways, and the Tennessee Titans, Liberty Hall has also enjoyed its many wedding reception and non-profit clients, such as the Junior League of Nashville, and the Charley Foundation-Ringside, A Fight for Kids. Room capacity is 1250 people seated theater-style, with banquet seating for 900, and an extensive in-house audio & video system is available to rent.

THE HERITAGE ROOM

Often used in conjunction with Liberty Hall, this 2250 sq. ft. space is ideal for buffet lines for a large banquet, silent auction or trade show booth space, or on its own for meetings or receptions of 120 people or less. With exposed brick, original pane windows, and wrought-iron chandeliers, this carpeted space includes access to a catering kitchen, with a portable sound system and dance floor available to rent. The Heritage Room can only be rented on its own on Saturdays within 30 days of the event date.
